FOR THE

INTRODUCTION OF GAS,

AND FOR

EXTENSIONS AND ALTERATIONS OF GAS FITTINGS;

TOGETHER WITH THE

TERMS UPON WHICH CONSUMERS WILL BE SUPPLIED WITH GAS.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Williamsburgh Gas Light Company.

ALL applications for the supply of Gas for private consumption, are to be made in writing, or in person, at the office of the Company, stating the probable number of burners, and the applicant acceding to these rules and terms; and when not the owner of the premises, furnishing the following written consent of the owner, viz: "I hereby consent that gas may be introduced into the premises, No. ———, of which I am the owner, and in default of payment of the gas consumed in said premises, I also consent that the flow of gas shall be stopped until the bill be paid."

The charge for every hundred cubic feet of gas is fifty cents, and will not at any time exceed that price. Gas will be supplied by the meter only, and should the meters at any time be found defective, they will be immediately changed. And in case of their ceasing to register the quantity of gas consumed, the account will be made by the average of another meter, or by the amount charged during a previous corresponding period, at the discretion of the Directors of the Company.

The bills will be rendered monthly, and payment required within five days after presentation. In default of payment within that time, the flow of gas will be stopped, or in case of leak or injury done to the meters or pipes within the premises of any consumer, the flow of gas will be stopped until the necessary repairs are made.

The service pipe from the main to the inside of the building to be lighted, (unless of extraordinary length,) and the meter, will be furnished by the Company without cost to consumers, the company requiring only the usual rent for the use of the meter. In cases, however, where gas is contemplated to be used for short periods, or only during a portion of the year, the service pipe and meter must be paid for by the consumer, or leased from the Company, as the Directors shall determine. The expense of the stop-cock, or other apparatus, and all extra service pipe, bends, &c., which may be required, shall be reimbursed to the Company by the consumer of gas upon the premises.

The tubings and fittings for the conveyance of gas within the walls, after it has passed the meter, may be put up by any competent mechanic employed by the consumer or proprietor of the premises, subject however to the inspection and approval of the Directors, or their authorized agents.

The Inspector will at all times be in attendance to examine the apparatus and premises of applicants, free of charge, on receiving three days' notice.

The notice for inspection must be accompanied by a plan or diagram, designating the locality, length, distance and size of the tubing within the building.

After the admission of gas into fittings, they must not be disconnected or opened, either for alteration or repair, without a written permit from the Inspector, which may be obtained at the office of the Company, free of expense.

The authorized agents of the Company are to have access to the meters and fittings at all reasonable times, to see that they are kept in proper condition, and to ascertain the quantity of gas consumed.

The tenant of any premises using gas shall give at least three days' written notice whenever he is about to move, that the gas may be stopped, or he will remain liable to pay for any gas that may pass through the meter until such notice is given. New occupants of places already fitted up, are also required to give written notice at the office of the Company, otherwise they will be held liable for all back dues.

The Company reserves to itself the right to refuse to continue the flow of gas into any premises, until all arrears due therefrom shall be paid, and to cut off the communication of the service pipe, if they find it necessary to do so.

Any injury done to the meter or service pipe must be repaired at the expense of the consumer.

Consumers are to give immediate notice at the office, if any escape of gas be discovered, as no deductions will be made from the bills rendered for gas registered by the meter. They are also desired to notify the Company, as early in the day as possible, of any deficiency of light, that the evil may be remedied without delay.

Each consumer will be furnished with a copy of these Rules and Regulations, as a notice of the condition upon which the gas will be supplied.

The Directors recommend that proper attention be given to regulating the height of the flame, on which depends the quantity of gas consumed. By raising the flame to a moderate height, the most perfect combustion and brightest light are obtained, and the use of the gas is thus rendered both pleasant and economical, being entirely free from smoke or the least unpleasant smell. The burners should also be kept free from dust, by being covered when not in use. A small thimble fitting the burner is made for that purpose.

The following table exhibits the proportionate size and length of tubing required to be introduced by consumers. An adherence to it will be found necessary to an uninterrupted flow of gas, and consequently to a steady light.

Size of Tubing.	Greatest length allowed.	Greatest No. of Burners.

PROFESSOR METCALFE'S Academy for Young Ladies, No. 68 South 9th Street, Williamsburgh, L. I.,

---

WITH its spacious and well-ventilated apartments, its able and efficient corps of Teachers, offers great inducements to Parents and Guardians, who desire a healthy location for their daughters and wards, where, under their daily inspection, a thorough education in all the Solid and Ornamental branches may be acquired, without the exposure of a Ferry, and free from all the contaminating influence of large boarding-schools.

Ample provision will be made for receiving Young Ladies from abroad in the family of the Principal, and in other eligible situations.

The Academic year will begin on the second Monday of September, and will be divided into four Terms, of eleven weeks each.

There will be a Public Examination at the close of the year in July, after which will occur the principal Vacation.

The hours of study are from 9, A. M. to 3, P. M., with a brief recess at 12.

Tuition, from $5 to $15 per Term, in advance, Latin and Greek included. Each pupil will pay $1 for fuel, etc., at the beginning of the Fall Term, and 50 cents a Term for stationery. Pupils received at all times—charges proportionate.

Modern Languages and Music, Drawing, Painting, &c., at Professor's prices.

Circulars may be found at Gandar's, the Post Office, and at the rooms of the subscriber, Nos. 66 and 68 South Ninth Street.

SILAS METCALFE, A. M., Principal.

Williamsburgh, May 27, 1851.

Resolution of the Trustees of Kinderhook Academy, Aug. 12th, 1847.

Resolved, That we regard MR. METCALFE as justly entitled to rank among the first class of Academic Teachers, as well for his literary attainments and system of discipline, in the government of youth, as his pure and unblemished character.

By order of the Board,

D. VAN SCHAACK, Sec.

Rev. JOHN FORD'S Testimonial.

Having for years enjoyed the pleasure of a particular acquaintance with MR. SILAS METCALFE, we cordially recommend him to the Citizens of Williamsburgh, as a gentleman of great kindness of spirit; urbanity of manners; piety of character; of untiring assiduity and eminent success as a Teacher of the Languages and Sciences.

JOHN FORD.

WILLIAMSBURGH GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

The SUMMER TERM of this INSTITUTION, which has been in successful operation nearly four years, will commence on May 7th, in the new, capacious, and thoroughly ventilated building, corner of Fourth and South Ninth Streets.

The School is divided into four Departments—Primary, Junior, Senior and Classical; by this systematic arrangement, Pupils will be fitted for such pursuits in life as the parents and guardians may desire.

The teaching of Latin and Greek is based upon the system so successfully practised in the Modern Languages.

The study of ARITHMETIC, both mental and written, a thorough knowledge of which is indispensable in this business community, is conducted by ANALYSIS, a method which inculcates the principles of the science, facilitates the operation, and expands the mind at every step. In ORTHOGRAPHY, &c. "McKENZIE'S Eclectic Manual" has been used with a success which challenges competition; and in the other studies, such books have been selected as experience has stamped

The discipline is firm, but mild. Reports of attendance, deportment, and recitations, are submitted to the parents weekly, for their inspection and signature.

As a great practical end in the training of youth is the invigoration and expansion of the body, the preservation of health and the prevention of disease, the Proprietor has spared no expense in constructing the Gymnastic exercises, and arranging the play-ground (which contains 5000 square feet) in such a manner as to be most conducive to the expansion of the chest, and the developement of the muscular system.

Terms per Quarter, in advance.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.

Reading, Spelling, Simple Rules of Arithmetic and Tables, $4.00

CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT.

The above with Latin, Greek, Geometry, Trigonometry, Perspective Drawing, and Bookkeeping, $12.00

Lectures will be given from time to time on European and American Literature, Chemistry, General History, Natural Philosophy, Anatomy, Physiology, and Hygiene, by the Rev. CHARLES REYNOLDS, A.M. Rector of Christ Church, N. B. the Principal—Prof. HYATT—and other professional gentlemen. Prof. ARADIS has charge of the French and Drawing.

EXTRAS.

French, German and Spanish, each, per quarter, $3.00

Fuel per season, 1.00

Stationery, per quarter, 0.50

The Pupils will be taught, during the season, the art of Swimming.

SAMUEL REYNOLDS,

The Proprietor respectfully submits the following letters, which he has received from several of his patrons.

Williamsburgh, Dec. 1847.

To the Rector of the Williamsburgh Grammar School:

SIR—We, the undersigned, Parents and Guardians of the Williamsburgh Grammar School, beg leave to express our high appreciation of the unprecedented progress which our sons have made, under your charge. Your admirable system of instruction, is, in our estimation, one peculiarly adapted to win the attention, and expand the mind of the youth. Deeply impressed with the untiring energy, and the systematic excellence displayed in your establishment, we hold it a duty, due both to yourself and the public, to make an open avowal of our sentiments, in the hope that our testimony may conduce to the welfare, and extension of your excellent School, and elicit that support and patronage which it so richly deserves.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

THE Compilers send forth this, their SECOND PUBLICATION, with much more confidence than they did their former issue. While they have learned, by experience, that perfection in such a work need not be expected; still they feel that the PRESENT DIRECTORY will compare favorably for accuracy, with that of any other city.

Having commenced in time, the compilers have done all the canvassing themselves, and have spared no pains to make the work as perfect as can possibly be expected. The VILLAGE REGISTER is believed to be accurate in every particular, and when consulted may be fully relied on.

The ADDITIONAL MATTER in this year's issue, will, it is hoped, be acceptable to all the Subscribers. It has cost the compilers no little labor, but has wrested, it may be from oblivion, STATISTICS OF NO MINOR IMPORTANCE. Notwithstanding this additional matter, the work is continued at the low price of FIFTY CENTS, in order that none may be deterred from the possession of so CONVENIENT a Manual. It is evident that, to make the work at all remunerative, a large number of copies must be circulated.

SAMUEL & T. F. REYNOLDS.

CAUTION.—No person is authorized to collect money for any advertisement inserted in this work, who does not produce written authority signed by the Publishers.

Names refused at 74 South 1st street, 144 South 1st, and at 284 South 5th street.

MAIN ENTRANCE TO THE

Cemetery of the Evergreens.

THESE beautiful Grounds, now extensively improved and ornamented, are within a few minutes' ride, and accessible to every class of this community. The entrance is near the junction of Division avenue and Bushwick road; and may be reached at any hour by the South 4th street and the Division avenue lines of Omnibuses.

But few of our citizens are aware of the loveliness of the place, and of the charming and extensive views which the grounds afford.

The price of lots varies from $15 to $60. The title of lands is indisputable. For all further particulars, apply to JOHN BENNET, Agent, 87 South-Seventh street.

FEVER AND AGUE. TO THE AFFLICTED! WONDERFUL REMEDY!

THE most singular thing to be said about this medicine is, that it matters not how long the complaint has been standing, it not only relieves, but in fact cures it. No article in the whole medical line has done so much to relieve the above disease, and by its use many have found immediate relief, who have tried every other means in vain. The numerous cases of cures effected could not be credited, were it not that the testimony is so clear; cases of the severest character, of many years' standing, which have defied the skill of physicians, have been entirely cured by this medicine in a short time. Not an instance is known in which it has been used, that it has failed to effect a speedy cure. The complaint ever yields to its most marvellous power.

Afflicted mortal, apply without delay, and entire health shall be thy reward.

Prepared and sold by MRS. KERNAN, 274 South 1st; sold also by Messrs. DARBEE, corner South 1st and Fourth.

JAMES J. TERHUNE

WOULD most respectfully give notice, that he is now prepared to furnish the Citizens of Williamsburgh with Boots and Shoes, of a very superior quality, of his own manufacture, at the lowest prices for which good articles can be obtained. I have on hand, and will make to order

Gentlemen's fine French calf Dress Boots.

" Patent leather Congress Boots—plain and fancy tops.

" " Taylor tie Brogans—fancy colors.

" Cloth Congress Gaiters—black and colored.

" Calf Brogans, Slippers, &c. &c., all made of the best materials, and in the most workmanlike manner.

Ladies' Congress Franca Gaiters—a beautiful article.

" Lace " —of the best kind.

" " Lasting " —a variety of styles.

" " Enamelled Gaiters, &c.—of various qualities.

" Buskins, Slippers, Excelsiors, Jenny Linds, Morocco Bootees, &c., made to fit the foot, and suit the taste of all.

Misses Gaiters, black and colored lasting, single and double soles.

" Morocco and leather Bootees and Buskins—in great variety.

Boys' and Youths' Boots and Shoes, of my own manufacture, superior to any yet seen in Williamsburgh.

Also, a first rate assortment of Infants' fancy colored patent leather Shoes; the quality and style of which cannot be excelled by any, and to which I would invite the attention of the Ladies.

In addition to which, can be found, a general assortment of Boots and Shoes, of various qualities and styles, which will be sold at the lowest prices for Cash.

Please call and examine for yourselves, at the one price Boot and Shoe Store, No. 68 Grand, between Second and Third streets.

REYNOLDS SAMUEL, Prin. and Prop. of "Grammar School," h.

The Grammar School which is pleasantly situated on three lots, 12, 14 and 16 Fourth street, corner of South 9th, has been in successful operation nearly four years. The building is large, well ventilated, and in every respect adapted to the purposes for which it was erected. The play-ground is large and well suited for the recreation and exercise of the pupils. The school is divided into four departments, in order that parents may send their sons at ALL AGES, who will be fitted for such pursuits in life as may be desired. The discipline, though firm, is exercised with mildness; the Principal believing in the couplet—

"Never use the harsher mode,
When love will do the deed."

☞ For terms, &c., see circular in the first pages of this work.

REYNOLDS T. F., Agent for European, Cumberland, and all American Coals, h. 10 Fourth. T. F. R. promises all who may favor him with their custom, that his coals shall be the best the market affords, and from 5 to 10 per cent. cheaper than can be bought elsewhere. His coals will be well screened, carefully weighed, and promptly delivered. Orders received at the above residence, 10 Fourth street.

THE WILLIAMSBURGH EQUESTRIAN INSTITUTE,

Nos. 59 and 61 South 4th Street,

E. HANFORD, PROPRIETOR.

WM. H. STOUT, Equestrian Manager.

THE unparalleled success of this Institution, enables the Proprietor to present its claims, with the greatest confidence, to public attention and patronage.

The capability of the Manager, assisted by civil and attentive Grooms, the arrangements of the building, with Ante-Rooms and side Parlors, well fitted up, and a Riding Ring, three times the size of any other in America, afford facilities for instruction in the elegant art of Horsemanship, and for the enjoyment of agreeable pastime on the part of its Guests and Patrons, no where else to be met with.

Everything about the establishment is conducted with the strictest propriety, and entirely select in every particular.

Hours for Exercise Riding, and Tuition of LADIES, from 9 A. M., to 5 P. M. No Gentlemen admitted during hours appropriated to Ladies.

Hours for GENTLEMEN from 6 to 9 A. M., and from 7 to 10 in the evening.

☞ Carriages to Let. Horses kept on livery, &c.

TO THE PUBLIC.

In presenting this number of the Directory, the publishers believe they have made some improvements, such as the insertion of the map of Williamsburgh, and increase of statistics, which will, without doubt, be fully appreciated. They have bestowed as much care and diligence as the time allotted would permit, but still fear there are some errors and omissions. The work will, however, be improved from year to year, until it shall compare with any work of the kind.

A full and minute history of Williamsburgh will be given in the next volume of the Directory.

Church Statistics.

It is believed that statistics have been procured of all the churches whose records have been kept. The order is given according to the dates of organization.

REFORMED PROTESTANT DUTCH CHURCH,

Corner of Fourth and South 2d streets.

The Reformed Protestant Dutch Church of Williamsburgh was organized in 1828 by the ordination of Peter Wyckoff and Peter Meserole as Elders, and Abraham Boerum and Abraham Meserole as Deacons. The precise number of communicants at the date of the organization is not known. It was however small, being composed chiefly of those who had hitherto been connected with the Reformed Dutch Church of Bushwick. The edifice in which the new church worshipped was completed in 1838, and was speedily occupied by the increasing population of the village. As that population multiplied in numbers and in wants, new organizations succeeded, each of which reduced for a time the original congregation of this Church. The Rev. James Demarest, M. D. was the first pastor; he labored here about ten years, and was succeeded by the Rev. Wm. H. Van Doren, who continued Pastor for about an equal period. In 1848 the church edifice was enlarged, modernized, and thoroughly renovated; and in the autumn of 1849, Rev. E. S. Porter, the present pastor, was invited to take charge of this Church.

The present number of communicants is about 165—the average attendance on Sabbath 450.

The present officers are, Henry McKinstry, Samuel Groves, William Ferris and Davis Johnson, Elders; J. S. Burr, A. S. Ely, Rob't Smith and William Meserole, Deacons.

There have been added to the church, during the past year, 31 persons. Eleven on confession of faith, and twenty by commendatory letters. Owing to the increasing wants of the congregation, additional pews are being placed within the building.

The number of Sabbath School scholars is 130. The school has a large library, to which $90 worth of new books has been recently added. Wm. Ferris is Superintendent, aided by an efficient corps of teachers.

E. S. PORTER, Pastor.

METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH,

Grand Street, near Fifth.

THIS Church was first built in 1832, and rebuilt in 1850. First board of Trustees, Frederick Dickerman, John Snyder, Benj<sup>n</sup> Doxey, Peter Merrit and Stephen Baker. The number of communicants at the time of organization was 20; the recent number, 72. Average of Sunday congregation, about 250. Present Trustees, David C. Jordon, sen., David C. Jordon, jr., John Snyder, Pierre A. Decevee, George Miller, William Ackerly, William Doxey, George Mannering, Joseph Dickerman. The Sunday School numbers 94: P. A. Decevee, Superintendent. WILLIAM H. JOHNSON, Pastor.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH,

Corner of Fourth and South 5th Streets.

THIS is the oldest Episcopal parish in Williamsburgh. The congregation was formed under the labors of the Rev. Wm. MORRIS, present Rector of Trinity School, New York. There were at that time about four communicants. The parish was duly organized and received into the Convention in the year 1837. The Rev. Mr. M. officiated until Easter, 1848, when, after eighteen months of faithful missionary labor, without stipend, he resigned, in order that the parish might obtain the services of a Clergyman who could reside among them. The Rev. SAMUEL C. DAVIS was then called to the Rectorship. At this time there were twelve communicants. During his ministry, a Brick Chapel was erected in the rear of the present Church. In the following year, the Rev. Mr. D. resigned, and in Oct. 1839, the present incumbent, the Rev. S. M. HASKINS, was called to the Rectorship. At this time there were about eighteen communicants, and a Sunday School of thirty scholars and six teachers. During the ministry of the present Rector, a Stone Church has been erected, and the congregation has steadily increased. Three parishes have been formed principally from its members; and there are still remaining about 175 communicants. The Sunday School numbers about 120 scholars and 13 teachers, of which the Rector is Superintendent.

Officers of the Church: Rector, S. M. HASKINS; Wardens, Ephraim Cooke, Octavius Longworth; Vestrymen, J. M. Matthews, T. A. Demill, T. Irwin, H. N. Fryatt, Wm. L. Haskins, D. Longworth, O. Hutchinson, Floyd Smith, Jr.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH,

South Second Street, between Fifth and Sixth.

Organized in its present locality, 1839. Trustees—David Garrett, Henry E. Bodwell, George W. Pitman, John L. Gray, Simon Richardson, and James D. Sparkman. Stewards—(probably,) Henry E. Bodwell, Robert Marshall, James Noble, Wm. T. Hendrickson and John B. Keys. The Preachers, in 1839, were Richard Seman and James Rawson; in 1839, William Thaddeus and James Rawson. (The date obtained in 1839. The church edifice erected in 1839.) The Rev. DANIEL OSTRANDER, Presiding Elder.

The number of Communicants at that time is supposed to be about 50; the progress of the church so increasing, that three churches have colonized from it, which are in a prosperous condition, while the original congregation usually fills the edifice. Present number of communicants, about 380; average Sunday A. M. Congregation, about 200.

PRESENT OFFICERS.—Trustees—Edward Driggs, Timothy Coffin, Samuel Cox, Ensign Driggs, Edward Killington, John Delaglaise, Francis A. Casleaz, Frederick Dehn and William J. Pease.

Stewards—Samuel Cox, George Higgins, James W. Tins, Francis A. Casleaz, Joseph H. Vandewater, Daniel Powell and Wm. J. Pease.

Leaders—Edward Killington, George Higgins, Samuel Cox, Timothy Coffin, Ensign Driggs, Edmund Driggs, Wm. H. Butler, Wm. C. Valentine Flagler and William J. Pease. Local Preachers—Joseph Hodgson, William Lee. Pastor, Rev. W. F. COLLINS. Presiding Elder, Rev. Lohan Clark.

Average attendance of Sunday School, 261. Superintendent, Samuel Cox. Assistant Superintendents, William Cressy and Lovinia Giles. Secretaries, Joseph Ford and Francis A. Duncan. Librarians, Charles W. Cheshire and William E. Duncan. W. F. COLLINS, Pastor.

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

This Church was constituted April 14, 1839, under the name of the "Williamsburgh Bethel Independent Baptist Church." The name was changed May 11, 1848, to the "First Baptist Church of Williamsburgh." The place of worship is located on the southeast corner of Fifth and South Fifth streets. It is a Gothic edifice, with two spires. The walls are brick, covered with mastic, in imitation of hewn stone. It is neatly and handsomely finished, both on the exterior and in the interior, and will accommodate a congregation of 800 to 900.

It was constituted with fourteen members. Rev. JOHN JONES was the first Pastor; David K. Stevens, Deacon; Robert Fisher and John Cheeney, Trustees; and John R. Adams, Clerk. During the first three years of its history, the progress of the church was very slow, and it was difficult to sustain the interest. Since then it has been steadily increasing.

The changes of Pastors have been as follows: Rev. John Jones, from April 18, 1839, to November 19, 1839; Rev. C. F. Frey, from May 13, 1840, to March 20, 1841; Rev. L. Murry, from September 12, 1841, to November 8, 1843; Rev. Theophilus Jones officiated from December 13, 1843, to March 26, 1844; Rev. Alanson P. Mason, from May 19, 1844, to November 1, 1849; Rev. Morgan J. Rhea, commenced July 15, 1850. John Westervelt, Clerk.

The present number of members, April 1st, 1851, is 276, and the average congregation on the Sabbath, is between 500 and 600. The officers of the church are, Rev. MORGAN J. RHEA, Pastor; Frederick D. Tacker, William M. McCutchen, Henry P. Freeman, John B. Coleman, Deacons; Charles W. Houghton, Henry P. Freeman, Richard J. Bradford, George Bryant, Benjamin T. Jessup, Thomas J. Van Sant, John B. Coleman, Trustees.

The average attendance at the Sabbath School is about 200 scholars; Henry P. Freeman, Superintendent; John Westervelt, Assistant Superintendent; Joseph H. Adams, Secretary; William G. McCutchen, John E. Rhea, Librarians.

CHRIST CHURCH, NORTH BROOKLYN.

This Church, which is now located a few rods outside of Williamsburgh limits, is attended almost exclusively by residents of our village. The parish was organized as "Christ Church, Williamsburgh," in 1846. The services for nearly a year after organization were held in the Reformed Dutch consistory room, Fourth street. The Church was without the services of a Pastor until September, in the above named year, when the Rev. CHAS. REYNOLDS, the present incumbent, received and accepted a unanimous call to the Parish. The number of communicants at that time was 13.

Within four months from the Rector's entrance upon his duties, a small, yet very neat edifice was erected on the south-east corner of South Sixth and Fifth streets. This edifice being too small for the congregation in the Spring of 1849, and an eligible plot of ground on Bedford avenue, being proffered to the Vestry by the Messrs. Jacob and

B. B. Boerum, the Parish of "Christ Church, Williamsburgh," was dissolved, and at the same meeting, that of "Christ Church, North Brooklyn," organized. The corner stone of the present building was laid on Ascension day, 1849, and the church opened for divine service on the last Sunday in the following September.

The present number of communicants is 90. The Sunday School very flourishing. Its sessions are held in the "Grammar School Building," corner of Fourth and South 9th streets. Samuel Reynold, Superintendent.

Vestry for 1851: CHAS. REYNOLDS, Rector; Samuel Pin, George Bunce, Wardens; Rich'd Ten Eyck, Jas. H. Kenly, A. J. Berry, M.D., Thomas L. Blackwell, (vacancy), Geo. Jardine, W. L. Gilroy, Samuel Godwin, Vestrymen.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH, (R. C.)

Montrouze Avenue, near Essex at Broadway and Bond

This Church was organized in July, 1841. The number of communicants at that time was about 200, which number has increased to 6000. The Sunday School numbers about 200 scholars. The Sunday morning congregations—which meet for two services every Sunday morning—each average about 900. Two hundred and fifty were baptized the past year, and fifty-four married.

JOHN RAFFNER, Priest.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,

South 4th Street, corner of Sixth,

Was organized in May, 1842, and consisted of some fifteen members. The number of members now is about two hundred. The Pastor is the Rev. JAMES W. McLANE. The Elders are, John Horne, Henry Wilson, Paul J. Fish and James Chase. George W. Edwards, Superintendent of the Sabbath School.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH,

Corner of South Third and Eleventh Streets.

ORGANIZED May 23, 1843. First Deacons, James Warner, Samuel Wilde and Henry Davis. First number of communicants, 6; present number, 37. Present Deacons, James Warner, Samuel Wilde and Henry Davis. Sabbath School, 50 scholars. Sabbath School Superintendent, James H. Warner.

The seats of this church are free. Casts, on account of complexion, in this church, not allowed. Slaveholders and their apologists not fellowshiped, nor those who sell or use intoxicating drinks as a beverage.

SIMON S. JOCKLYN, pastor.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,

South 3d Street, corner of Fifth.

"The Presbyterian Church of Williamshurgh," Old School, was organized April 19th, 1844. Officers then—Elders, Henry Payson, Rufus Belden, and Wheeler V. Nichols. Trustees, Rufus Belden, Wheeler V. Nichols, Thomas N. Ayres, A. P. Cummings, Thomas Pollock, B. H. Howell, Edwin Ferry, John Miller, Jr., Levi W. Uford. Number of communicants then, 27.

There have been 205 members received into the Church, up to the present time; and a church edifice of brick, 73 by 62 feet, has been erected, and will be free from debt, with the favor of Providence, before the commencement of the Summer. The building was finished May, 1846. Value of Church property, $20,000. Present number of communicants, 153.

Present Officers: Elders, Henry Payson, W. V. Nichols, J. Hamilton, A. P. Cummings, G. B. Habbell. Deacons, Sylvester M. Beard, Horace Thayer, David B. Hunt. Trustees, A. P. Cummings, E. Ferry, H. C. Boswell, B. H. Howell, R. Warnock, S. M. Beard, J. A. Burr.

We regard our Sabbath School with very special interest. The average attendance of scholars on all the Sabbaths of last year, was 202, and of teachers, 32. The highest average for any entire month was 245; and the largest attendance on any one Sabbath, 284.

JOHN D. WELLS, Pastor.

FIRST UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, AND SOCIETY.

The house of worship of the First Universalist Church and Society, is situated on Fourth street, at the corner of South-Third. It is a plain, but neat and substantial brick edifice, the interior being tastefully painted, in fresco.

The Society was established in June, 1845; but the Church organization was not completed till October, 1845, when 19 communicants enrolled themselves; the Rev. HARRY LYON being the Pastor, and Messrs. George Ricard and Joseph O. Stanley being Deacons. The membership of the Church has moderately, but steadily increased. The relation of Rev. Mr. Lyon to the Church and Society closed in July, 1849, from which date, to the first of December of the same year, the Pastorship was vacant. At the latter date, the said resigned assumed the Pastoral office. The present Deacons are, Messrs. George Ricard and James Hall.

The original Trustees of the Society were George Ricard, William D. Miles, Joseph C. Stanley, Milton Woolley, Amos Smith, Theophilus W. Smith, and William Dillingham. The present Trustees, are George Ricard, Amos Smith, William Dillingham, William E. Bailey, Daniel Hawkins, William Bunting, and G. L. Demarest.

The morning attendance is generally from 200 to 250. No attempt has been made to ascertain, with any exactness, the number present on the various Sabbaths of the year; but these numbers probably approach the average. They are frequently exceeded.

The Universalist Sunday School was commenced on the 13th of April, 1845, with 10 scholars, under the superintendence of G. L. DEMAREST, who has, to the present time, continued in charge of the School. The number now connected with it, is 130.

DAY K. LEE, Pastor.

THE SECOND METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH,

Corner of Grand and Essex Streets,

Was organized September 4th, 1845. The first Board of Trustees were Lemuel Richardson, Daniel Manjer, John F. Luther, Robert G. Thorsby, Isaac Hemletson, and Charles Manjer. The number of communicants, at that time, was 10.

The corner stone of the Church edifice was laid December 4th, 1845. The Church was dedicated to the service of Almighty God, November 26th, 1846.

The present number of communicants is 130. The Congregation have gradually increased, so that the Church is now well filled.

Regular services are held three times on the Sabbath, to wit:—At 10½ A. M., and at 3 and 7½ P. M.; and also on Wednesday evening, in the Lecture Room. Rev. W. K. STURRON was the first regular Pastor of the Church. He received his appointment at the Conference of 1846. He was succeeded in 1848 by the Rev. J. J. MATTHIAS. Mr. Matthias was succeeded in 1850 by the present Pastor, Rev. W. C. HORT. The Parsonage is No. 475 Grand street.

There is connected with the Church, a large and flourishing Sabbath School. Two sessions are held each Sabbath, at 9 A. M. and at 2 P. M. WILLIAM A. FITCH and ELIZA CRAWFORD, Superintendents. Connected with the School and forming part of it, are two Bible Classes—one composed of Girls, and conducted by JULIA M. FITCH; the other, of Boys, and conducted by DANIEL MAUSER. The School is well supplied with the "Sunday School Advocate," and has a Library of between 300 and 400 well selected volumes.

GERMAN EVANGELICAL CHURCH,

Corner of Graham Avenue and Wyrkoff Streets.

INCORPORATED under the above name July 25th, 1847. In 1847, the number of communicants was 90. In 1850, the number of communicants was 160. Average attendance, 320. On Easter, Whit-Sunday, and Christmas, 450. Average attendance of Sabbath School 90 to 100.

Officers of the Church, in 1847, were—Elders, George Beck, Charles Muerts, James Weinsmann. Deacons, David Kliuk, C. Herrschaft, George Goertz. Pastor, Rev. BENJAMIN LOUIS SCHWARTZ.

Present officers, are—Elders, Balthezar Null, Frederick Busch, Charles Schmidt. Deacons, Frederick Scheimann, Henry Wishe, Christian Schallile. Pastor, Rev. JOHN HENRY MESSERT. Superintendent of Sabbath School, Frederick Busch.

In November, 1848, the Rev. Christian Frederick Hermann Boussel, succeeded Mr. Schwartz, he having accepted a call to Boston. Mr. Boussel died in August, 1849, and was succeeded by the Rev. Robert Koehler, in December, the same year. In July, 1850, Mr. Koehler dissolved his connexion with the congregation, and in August, the Rev. JOHN H. MESSERT was elected Pastor of the congregation.

ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

THE Roman Catholic Church, situated on Second street, between South 2d and South 3d streets, was dedicated to the worship of God, under the patronage of Saints Peter and Paul, on the 7th of May, 1848. It numbered over 3,000 members at the time of its dedication. Our present estimate is six thousand. There has been no change of Pastors. Rev. S. MALONE is, and has been the Pastor from the beginning. Number of Children in attendance at Sunday School, 600.

The Boys have over twenty young Men, who attend to their spiritual instruction, and the Girls are not wanting in young Ladies, who devote their best energies to their advantage.

Corner of North First and Ninth Streets.

PUBLIC worship every Lord's day—10½ A.M., 3½ and 7½ P.M. Sabbath school—9 A. M., and 2 P. M.

This Church was organized on the 11th of April, 1850. It then consisted of 23 members: its pastor was ordained and installed on the 6th of May in the same year. Little more than a year has elapsed since its organization, and now it numbers nearly 100 members.

This Church is precisely the same as that established by John Knox in Scotland, in A. D. 1560; and also as that which was so severely persecuted in Scotland between 1660 and 1689. It bears amicable relations to the Free Church of Scotland, the Presbyterian Church in England, the General Assembly in Ireland, and the Presbyterian Church of Canada. The Reformed Presbyterian Church is the only American Church which fully agrees in doctrine and worship with the Scottish and Irish Presbyterian General Assemblies.

Rev. J. B. FENLAY, Ph. D., Pastor.

HAIR DRESSING AND SHAVING SALON, 45 FOURTH STREET,

Between South Street and South 2d St.

WILLIAMSBURG.

Where may be found an extensive assortment of PERFUMERY, and where gentlemen may be relieved of their beards in the easiest and most scientific manner. Those having never tried his NEW APPARATUS for SHAVING, will enjoy a most comfortable shave.

L. H. N. having refitted his Salon in a manner not to be equalled by any in the village, humbly craves a continuance of past favors. It is hardly necessary to remind his patrons, that having for many years enjoyed the distinction of setting the style for wearing hair, both upon the head and face, he still intends to exercise the same privileges. Gentlemen can always be accommodated with

SHIRTS, COLLARS, SUSPENDERS, HOSIERY, &c.—Also

The Finest Quality of Imported HAVANA SEGARS.

L. H. N. would beg leave to inform the Ladies that a large collection of Perfumery, Brushes, Combs, and Fancy Articles, of the finest quality, on much more liberal terms than they can be procured in the city, may always be found in the store. Of this collection he would enumerate all kinds of Lubin's Extracts, Jersey Club, West End, Also, Maugest and Courdray's celebrated Perfumes, De Prince's and Russell's Soaps, &c., &c. Also,

Ladies' Heads Dressed and Shampooed. Ladies attended at their Bathing.

N. B.—Particular attention paid to Children's Hair Cutting. L. H. N. would also inform the citizens of Williamsburgh, that all workmen employed by him are of the first class, as no others will be employed.

BLAKE'S PATENT FIRE-PROOF PAINT,

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE ARTICLE THAT CAN BE SOLD
WITHOUT INFRINGING UPON MY PATENT.

THIS article, in a few months after being applied, turns into slate or stone, forming a complete enamel or coat of mail over whatever is covered, bidding defiance to Fire, Weather or Water. It has been found, upon analyzation by Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, to consist of larger proportions of Silica, Alumina, Protoxide of Iron and Magnesia, with lesser Lime and Carbon. The transition, therefore, from the soft paint to the hard slate is (in the opinion of Drs. Chilton and Lock) accounted for according to Nature's own laws; and the longer it is on, the harder and more permanent it becomes. It has been tested about seven years, and, where first applied, is now like a stone. It has also been tried in several fires in Akron, Ohio, where all the Fire Insurance Companies have since published that they will insure buildings, &c., covered with this substance, at a lower rate of premium than those covered with tin or zinc, considering it a better fire-proof.

The Fair of the American Institute have, for the three last years, awarded to me the highest premiums. Diplomas have also been presented from the New York State Fair and the State Fair of Massachusetts.

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUD,

As there are scores of unprincipled individuals digging, grinding, and endeavoring to sell all kinds of worthless counterfeit stuff, calling it fire-proof paint. No one can manufacture and sell the genuine without infringing my patent, which, having been submitted to reference, and also to the Hon. Daniel Webster, is decided to be good and valid. I have just commenced three suits against different parties, and am determined to prosecute every person who infringes the patent, and those individuals who have given credence to the pirates will soon have an opportunity of defending themselves before a court of justice.

The original and genuine Patent Fire-Proof Paint, either in dry powder or ground in oil, can at all times be had at the General Depot, 84 Pearl Street, New-York.

The Illustrated
PHRENOLOGICAL ALMANAC

FOR

1852.

BY L. N. FOWLER.

CONTAINING THE PORTRAITS AND PHRENOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS OF MANY EMINENT INDIVIDUALS, WITH A DEFINITION OF THE PHRENOLOGICAL ORGANS.

NEW YORK:
FOWLERS AND WELLS, PUBLISHERS,
CLINTON HALL, NO. 131 NASSAU STREET.

EXPLANATION OF THE SYMBOLICAL HEAD.

AN explanation of the engraving which adorns the first page of the cover, embracing the definition of each of the organs, will doubtless be acceptable to our readers, especially to such as are not well versed in Phrenology.

1. AMATIVENESS—Sexual love. Represented in the engraving by Cupid, with his bow.
2. PHILOPROGENITIVENESS—Parental love; fondness for children and pets. A mother fondling her child, with a cat and kittens at her feet.
- A. UNION FOR LIFE, or CONNUBIALITY—The pairing instinct; connubial tendency. A clergyman administering the marriage rite.
3. ADHESIVENESS—Friendship; attachment; fraternal love. Two women embracing each other.
4. INHABITIVENESS—Love of home. An old man with his home in sight.
5. CONCENTRATIVENESS, or CONTINUITY—Application, connectedness of thought and feeling. A student poring over his books, and lost to surrounding objects.
6. COMBATIVENESS—Power to defend; overcome; protect; resist; oppose; contend; contradict; and manifest courage. The cock crowing defiance. Two boys in a quarrel—which, however, is a perversion of the faculty.
7. DESTRUCTIVENESS—Executiveness; energy; force; thoroughness.—Its perversion leads to cruelty and hatred. A sportsman shooting a deer.
8. ALIMENTIVENESS (back part)—Appetite; sense of hunger; desire for food. A man eating with a right good will.
8. BIBATIVENESS (front part)—Desire to drink; love of water and fluid food. A man drinking, whose bottle and pursy dimensions indicate too great freedom in that habit.
9. ACQUISITIVENESS—Regard for property; desire to accumulate. A miser in scant attire, sitting on a bench in a small apartment, with barred door, and small, grated window, counting his money on a table worth twenty-five cents. This is a perverted manifestation of the faculty.
10. SECRETIVENESS—Policy; management; tact; shrewdness; reserve; concealment. A cat watching for mice, and softly creeping from her hiding-place to seize them by surprise.
11. CAUTIOUSNESS—Watchfulness; fear; restraint; solicitude; prudence; sense of danger. A hen surprised by a hawk; her chickens, having been warned, are fleeing for safety.
12. APPROBATIVENESS—Love of pleasing; sense of character; ambition; desire to excel; affability, politeness. An exquisite tipping his beaver to a lady.
13. SELF-ESTEEM—Self-appreciation; pride; desire to command, to take the lead; love of liberty; independence; self-reliance. A proud man, with head erect and a dignified walk; and a haughty peacock.
14. FIRMNESS—Stability; perseverance; decision; positiveness. The mule refusing to go. A pyramid in the distance, as an emblem of stability, and the perseverance requisite to the completion of so great a structure.
15. CONSCIENTIOUSNESS—Sense of justice; duty to God and man; obligation; integrity; truthfulness; faithfulness. A figure of Justice blindfolded, holding in one hand the sword, as an emblem of Justice; in the other the balances, to mete out to all their due, without partiality.
16. HOPE—Anticipation; cheerfulness; buoyancy; enterprise; expectation of future good. A female figure leaning on the anchor, which is an emblem of hope.
17. SPIRITUALITY—Faith; belief; confidence in and perception of the spiritual; love of the new, novel, and wonderful. Moses receiving the tables of stone on Mount Sinai (Exodus, chap. xxiv). The large cut represents the "Witch of Endor" raising Samuel. (See 1 Sam. chap. xxviii.)
18. VENERATION—Devotion; adoration; respect to superiors. A woman at prayer; and a boy bowing to a parson.
19. BENEVOLENCE—Kindness; charity; liberality; sympathy; humanity. A man inviting the widow and orphan to his house.
20. CONSTRUCTIVENESS—Mechanical skill; contrivance; ingenuity. A mason constructing an arch, and machinery operating before him.
21. IDEALITY—Sense of beauty; refinement; perfection; poetry, etc. An artist with his easel and pallet. A harp and a vase of flowers.
- B. SUBLIMITY—Sense of the sublime; grand; vast; wild; romantic. The Falls of Niagara, with its rainbow and overhanging rocks.
22. IMITATION—Power to copy; pattern; imitate; conform; mimic. An artist painting a portrait.
23. MIRTHFULNESS—Wit; fun; glee; jocoseness; sense of the ludicrous, absurd, and comical. A child playing the buffoon, with a laughing mask in his hand.
24. INDIVIDUALITY—Observation; desire to see and identify. A lad, not satisfied with what he can see with the naked eye, using the telescope to lengthen the reach of his vision.
25. FORM—Perception and recollection of shape, outline, and countenance.
26. SIZE—Judgment of magnitude; propor-

- tion; parallels; distance and perspective; measuring by the eye. A large and a small apple, as a contrast of size.
27. WEIGHT—Perception of gravity; perpendiculars; power to balance and direct motion and machinery. An actor dancing on a tight-rope, and balancing a rod in his hand.
28. COLOR—Perception and judgment of colors. The rainbow, and a flowering shrub.
29. ORDER—Method; system; arrangement. A tidy housewife using the broom; her cupboard of dishes neatly arranged.
30. CALCULATION—Sense of numbers, and facility in calculating. A sum in arithmetic worked out.
31. LOCALITY—Knowledge of location, and points of compass. A traveler, a guide-board, and a town in the distance.
32. EVENTUALITY—Memory of facts; events; experience. Illustrated by a book of history; a record of facts.
33. TIME—Memory of time; duration; dates; hour of the day. An hour-glass and a watch, as emblems of the passage of time.
34. TUNE—Sense of harmony and melody in music, speech, etc. A lady playing the harp.
35. LANGUAGE—Expression of thought and feeling by means of speech.
36. CAUSALITY—Power to reason, and trace the relations of cause and effect. Newton under the apple-tree, deducing the theory of gravitation from the fall of an apple.
37. COMPARISON—Power to reason by analogy and comparison; to illustrate by similar cases. A chemist in his laboratory analyzing substances.
- C. HUMAN NATURE—Perception of motives; character. A man offering his hand confidently, while the other withholds his, and seems to say, "Let me see who and what you are first."
- D. AGREEABLENESS—Pleasantness; suavity; smoothness of expression.

PROGRESS OF PHRENOLOGY.

THE fact that phrenological science is continually spreading, and rapidly acquiring popularity as a means of education and self-culture, wherever it is known, is invincible evidence in its favor.

Our labors in this noble cause are constantly increasing; our invitations to lecture are more numerous; our audiences are larger; professional examinations are much more abundant; young men about entering upon a pursuit, eagerly seek the aid of the science in making a proper selection; parents solicit its light by which to guide their course in family training; the demand for books is greatly augmented, and they are read with avidity; the Phrenological Journal has a wider circulation than ever before, and surpasses in this respect, any scientific periodical in the United States, or the world.

On the other hand, the active opponents of the science are few, their arguments weak, and their books are not read.

The question may here arise, why is the science becoming so popular? It is not because of the superior talent, learning, or number of its advocates. It is not because it has not had talented and determined opponents, who have employed their sternest efforts to overthrow it; nor is it because it is novel in its character, and addressed to credulity rather than to reason. But it is because it is TRUE, and correctly describes human nature; because it is a true mirror of the mind, and that those who read it study THEMSELVES; because it is a system of wholesome, practical truth, adapted to every man's case, and those who study its doctrines find awakened in them a spirit of enterprise, progress, and reform, and are thereby taught how best to succeed in life, and how to make the most of themselves; because it curbs the supercilious, and assures the diffident of the possession of latent capabilities of which they were previously unconscious, and puts them on the high road to triumphant success; because it is at the foundation of every reform having its basis in the nature of man; because it is in perfect harmony with what we know of the mental constitution, and gives us more exalted and correct conceptions of the character of God; because it makes us acquainted with the true relations existing between the body and the mind, between one human being and another, and explains the relations which ought to exist between the sexes, and enables us to properly understand the character of both; because it encourages the education and elevation of woman for her true sphere, and to her proper level; and because facts of the following nature are daily occurring.

A mother called at our office a few days since, and said her son's head was examined by us three years ago, and was told that he would not succeed well as a wood-engraver, and the reasons given; that we informed the artist who consulted us that he had better not take the boy as an apprentice; that we told the boy that he had superior mechanical talents, and might excel in whatever required real ingenuity, activity of body, and scope of mind; that engraving is too confining for him, and that he had not sufficient patience and concentration for the business. He left the engraver by mutual consent, and is now succeeding admirably as a scenery painter—and, said the mother with tears of gratitude, "I thank you most cordially for the advice you gave him."

Within the past year a young and spirited merchant of this city came for an examination, and was told that he was overtaxing his mind; that his brain and nervous system were too much inflamed, and that he must hold up, do less mentally, quit smoking, give up coffee and tea, take more exercise in the open air, and more physical labor, or he would die a dyspeptic, or a maniac in less than five years. In three months after, he came into our office, apparently a new creature, with a firm step, expanded chest, and a robust and healthy general appearance, and said, "I have observed your directions to the very letter, and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I have lost my nervousness, and would not at this moment take ten thousand dollars for the benefits which your advice has afforded me."

Hundreds of similar facts might be recited to swell the tide of human benedictions in favor of the science. If such reasons and benefits are not sufficient to prove that Phrenology is extensively spreading, and bids fair to become an important instrumentality in turning men from sin to righteousness, from a violation to obedience of the laws of his being, then indeed has analogy ceased to be an index of the future, and cause and effect become divorced.

DE WITT CLINTON

Was remarkable for his large brain, and powerful Mental Vital temperament, which gave him unusual warmth and elevation of feeling, and grasp of mind. Few men, in his day, were his equals in reasoning intellect, and he so directed his powers as to benefit mankind. He was born in Orange County, New York, in 1769, graduated at Columbia College in 1788, studied law in New York, early became interested in the great political questions of the day—lived in, and shared, the feeling of the Revolution; was deeply interested in the formation of the Constitution; at nineteen years of age created a sensation by writing on these subjects for the press; was six years private secretary to his uncle, Governor George Clinton; was a member of the Assembly, Senate, and Executive Council of his native state; when thirty-three, was elected to the United States Senate; was ten years Mayor of New York, and at the same time State Senator, where he stamped his great mind upon the whole range of legislation. He was the father and master spirit of the Erie Canal. From 1817 to 1828 he was Governor of the State of New York nearly the whole time, during which the great labor of his life, the Erie Canal, was completed. He died suddenly, Feb. 11th, 1828, in the fullness of his strength, and in the rising splendor of his fame. His successful efforts in internal improvement imparted an impetus to business, gave birth to Western prosperity, changed howling forests to a garden, and opened an empire to civilization. Unlike the warrior, whose chaplet drips with gore, Clinton's were bloodless victories, which never cost an orphan's tear or a widow's sigh. His was the triumph of art over rude nature, making the desolate wilderness vocal with the hum of peaceful industry, and planting homes for happy millions where the timid deer disported, and the hungry wolf prowled for his prey.

PROFESSOR JAMES J. MAPES.

PROFESSOR MAPES has a strong Vital Motive organization, and an immensely massive brain, especially in the forehead, measuring nearly twenty-four inches, giving great powers of research, analysis, generalization, invention, memory, and a love for, and ability in, the natural sciences and mechanism. He is also distinguished for benevolence, love of distinction, disregard for money, deficient Self-Esteem, very large social organs and Mirthfulness, hope, enthusiasm, and a restless spirit of enterprise.

He was born in New York, in 1806. When only eight years old he succeeded in the bold experiment of the manufacture of gaslight, which was adopted by George Youle, Esq., to light his extensive factory, which was the first building lighted by gas in the city of New York. At seventeen he gave a full course of lectures on military tactics. Although he followed the business of a merchant until 1832, yet he succeeded in painting, engraving, and drawing, but was most devoted to chemistry, in which he obtained an enviable reputation. He has acquired eminence as an inventor, a scholar in natural history and philosophy—is an honorary member of many European and American scientific institutions, and several of our universities have awarded to him the honorary degree of LL.D. In 1844 he was elected President of the Mechanics' Institute of New York; in 1842 he became the editor of the "American Repository of Arts, Sciences, and Manufactures," and is now editor of "The Working Farmer." He has established himself at Newark, New Jersey, on a farm which he conducts on scientific principles, and has the model farm of the state.

LOUIS XVIII.

THIS king of France possessed an animal temperament, and his whole organization was gross and coarse. It will be seen that the base of the brain, compared with the upper portion, was very large. He was remarkably devoted to the pleasures of appetite, and, in conjunction with general sensuality and voluptuousness, he may be said to have lived to eat. Such a cheek indicates predominant activity and power of the stomach and digestive system; and his head, just forward of the ears, was very broad. Alimentiveness, organ No. 8, was excessively developed

FAY.

THIS head shows good practical intellect, strong social organs, and the elements of ambition, perseverance, and enterprise. But the most marked trait is very large Combativeness, as seen at the figure 6, upward and backward of the ear. By profession he is a lawyer; is excessively fond of debate and opposition, and capable of putting forth great energy, and exhibiting sarcasm, and acrimony under provocation. Such a head qualifies a man for the most arduous pursuits, arming him with the spirit of courage and energy, thereby fortifying him for any emergency.

ANIMAL PHRENOLOGY.

THROUGHOUT the entire animal kingdom there is a perfect correspondence between the character and phrenological development of each species, and of each individual.

The horse is the noblest, and one of the most intelligent of the lower animals. As men are unlike in disposition, the same is equally true of horses. By the shape of the head, a person versed in Phrenology can defect, with great certainty, the vicious, intractable horse, or the mild, courageous, intelligent one.

HORSE NO. 1.

Width between, and prominence of the eyes, as in No. 1, indicate intelligence, the faculty to understand our wants, and learn to work and perform feats and tricks, as in the circus and the battle-field. Roundness and elevation between and above the eyes indicate mildness and amiability of disposition; width between the ears shows courage, nobleness, strength of character, patience, and energy.

No. 2 shows a marked contrast with the other in almost every respect; such a horse is easily frightened or irritated; is vicious and turbulent, and only fit for a mill, or horse-boat. For the family he should be avoided.

NEWFOUNDLAND DOG

WILD DOG.

How much higher is the head of the Newfoundland above and back from the eyes than the wild dog! In one, the organs of intelligence and kindness are very large, and indicate a high order of mental capacity and friendship. The wild dog has a broad, low head, flattened on the top, showing large Destructiveness and Combativeness, and fierce propensities, with small Benevolence and contracted intellectual organs, making him unfriendly and ferocious. The wolf and wild dog are much alike.

THE LION.

THE FOX.

The kingly pre-eminence of this monarch of the forest is indicated by surpassing muscular power, magnanimous courage, and nobleness. His figure is striking, his look confident and bold, his gait proud, and his voice terrible. The elevation and arching of the forehead bespeak intelligence and magnanimity, which serve to ennoble even the ferocity of the lion. He is capable of a high degree of cultivation, and, if taken young, he fraternizes with man, and becomes very fond of him.

The fox, on the contrary, is the embodiment of selfishness and treachery. Cunning is his leading trait, and all history gives him a bad name. He is sly, artful, and intriguing, not only in his efforts to secure game for himself, but to avoid being made game of by others. His intellect is sharp, but he has so little pride and nobleness, and so much finesse, that he degrades himself by acts of meanness which a lion or a respectable dog would despise. Secretiveness and Cautiousness are very large in the fox, as seen in the great width of his head. We have never seen the skull of any animal which equals that of the fox for its development of Secretiveness. Even the domesticated fox will steal and bury chickens, although full fed on meat, instinctively preferring treachery to integrity.

There is a perfect harmony of the feline species of animals, embracing the tiger, leopard, jaguar, ounce, lynx, panther, and domestic cat. In all

THE TIGER.

THE LEOPARD.

we find similar organs, and similar dispositions. They are cunning, watchful, ferocious, and bloodthirsty. Their long, sharp claws and teeth are united with tremendous muscular power to wield these terrible weapons with effect. All that such an organization needs to make it a terror to the whole animal kingdom is a disposition to wield its terrific implements. With this disposition they are provided in the enormous development of Destructiveness and Secretiveness, which give such width to their heads from ear to ear. How broad the head of the tiger, and yet how low and flat on the top—a perfect phrenological embodiment of unmitigated fierceness, without one element of kindness or sympathy. The same general form of head is seen in the leopard. It is also seen in all birds of prey, and the same dispositions attend it. As carnivorous beasts and birds have heads similar in form, and characters corresponding, we have a right to expect a corresponding similarity between herbivorous animals and granivorous birds, in head and character; and such is the fact. The feline race eat meat only, and have the destructive propensity strong. The cow, deer, sheep, and rabbit eat only vegetables, and have no disposition to destroy life.

THE STAG.

THE DEER.

SMALL DEER.

The deer family are very narrow at the base of the brain, through the head at the ears. In the stag, which is the protector and most courageous of the flock, we see a vast difference in the width of the head compared with the most amiable of the carnivorous races. The deer with the curled horns is of the same amiable type. The third figure shows a still more delicate organization, and a more narrow head. Though a male, its horns are very small and slight. It stands at the lowest point in the deer species, and is the most amiable and peaceable of all that inoffensive family. It never offends against the peace of inferior animals, or fights except with males of its own species at a particular season. This animal we regard as the personification of innocence, timidity, and amiability. How different from the tiger and the leopard, in head and in disposition!

PHYSIOGNOMY.

EVERY part of the human body, and every motion, is more or less indicative of character. The face is more a mirror of the mind than the body, and the head is the unvarying index of the character. The face exhibits usually the strong emotions when in action, but cannot safely be relied upon when the mind is at rest, and more especially if the person have large Secretiveness. Temporary sorrow, anger, or mirth may mislead the observer of the face, but the head, which is unchanged, gives constant evidence of the real character. The Duke of Gloucester is a strong illustration of great Destructiveness concealed by large Secretiveness. He says:

"Why, I can smile, and murder while I smile;
And cry, content, to that which grieves my heart;
And wet my cheeks with artificial tears,
And frame my face to all occasions."

But the smile of such a hypocrite cannot obliterate his enormous Destructiveness, nor deceive the phrenologist by the soft count and innocent face of the sleeping tiger.

The naked skull of poor Yorick, as the gravedigger carefully exhumed it from its resting-place, notwithstanding its yawning eye-sockets and ghastly grin, bore the evidences of its former warmth of affection and every wit, although the signs of these emotions in the face were obliterated forever. Few persons are aware that they judge of character and talent as much, or even more, by the head, as they do by the face, merely. A large, well-formed head, aside from any practical knowledge of Phrenology, exerts its influence as much on the mind of the observer in estimating character as well-defined and expressive features.

The world generally is not aware that professional physiognomists regard the brain as the organ of the mind, and look to its size and form as the foundation of character. LAVATER says, "I shall demonstrate, that from the mere outlines of the skull, the signs of the powers of understanding, of its capacities and talents, may be mathematically defined," and just the same says Phrenology.

The form and size of the brain is the basis of Physiognomy, and to be of any practical value, and founded in a sound philosophy, it must embody as its centre and source the system of Phrenology. The skull is fixed, and not subject to the various changes which the pain of a corn, or the reception of a toy, may cause to appear in the face.

The temporary effects of an emotion may appear in the face, obscuring for the time being the natural traits of character, while the form of the head remains the same, affording to the phrenologist the means of reading the real elements of the mind, whether it be lashed into fury and the face distorted by rage, or lulled to a calmness of spirit and placidity of countenance by all the soothing appliances of peace and love.

To illustrate our position we introduce four, from among the many likenesses of the celebrated delineator of eccentric characters, Dr. Valentine, copied from daguerreotypes of his face. First, we present the doctor in his own proper person. His face suggests the idea of penetration, good sense, and general candor. The phrenologist recognizes a large and active brain, a keen intellect, good memory, remarkable Imitation, Comparison, Mirthfulness, Human Nature, or perception of character, and large Secretiveness. This combination enables him to assume any character he chooses, and to act it out to the life, as thousands who have seen him can attest. These talents would be equally revealed in the bare skull.

DR. VALENTINE HIMSELF.

THE DOCTOR AS MONS. GRENOBLE.

We here present him in a borrowed character. What a contrast to the original is this expression of face! This is the character of a simple-hearted, sympathetic Frenchman, who confided in, and lodged a dirty, shirtless vagabond, who robbed him before morning of all his clothes and valuables, leaving his own filthy rags as a memorial of gratitude.

Here is the likeness of the same face, in the character of a soft, senseless fellow. Who would imagine that the same original sat for Joab and for the Hypochondriac?

JOAB SQUASH.

THE HYPOCHONDRIAC.

Instead of the sensible, intelligent countenance of the first, the good-hearted credulity and simplicity of the second, or the extreme silliness of the third, we have, in the hypochondriac, every line, angle, and expression of miserable, moping melancholy—an embodiment of sadness—a visage fit to freeze the soul. If we had room to copy the same face in a merry and a ferocious mood, we could show that the same face, in more than one instance, can be "framed to all occasions." During all these changes of the same face, and a dozen more, the head remains precisely the same, revealing the true character and the power to assume any character desired. The face exhibits, ordinarily, the present state of the mind, and of each of the faculties in a state of activity;—but the less changeable skull is the true mental index of the living, and the only organic memento of the character of the dead.*

"I HAVE BEEN FOR THIRTY YEARS AN observer, and I may say a student, of Phrenology, in nearly all its important bearings on man individually, and man socially considered. I regard Phrenology as the only system of mental philosophy which can be said to indicate, with any thing like clearness and precision, man's mixed moral and intellectual nature, and as the only guide, short of revelation, for educating him in harmony with his faculties, as a being of power; with his wants, as a creature of necessity; and with his duties, as an agent responsible to his Maker, and amenable to the laws declared by the All-wise Providence."—JOHN BELL, M.D., Editor American Medical Library.

* These likenesses are from "Dr. Valentine's Lectures;" F. Burgess, N. Y., publisher.

G. F.

B. M.

G. F. is one of the most gentle, amiable, and affectionate boys among several hundred at the Long Island farms. He is distinguished among them all for his prudence, judgment, deference, and regard for the feelings of others. He has a good mind, and is an excellent scholar. His intellectual and moral organs are large, and his tophead contrasts strongly with that of B. M., who is at the same place, and notorious as a reckless, stubborn, surly, and selfish boy. He is regardless of consequences; cares nothing for the wants, wishes or opinions, rights or comfort of others; seeks his own gratification at all hazards, and is perverse and vicious in the extreme. The base of his head is deplorably predominant, while the moral and reasoning regions are very defective. Such a boy requires the best of training to make him passably correct in conduct, but left to the chances of public charity, we have about as little prospect of a reputable and virtuous life from him as we have of "gathering grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles."

M. H. is noted for his love of sport and fun, and for the slyness of the plans he adopts to perpetrate a joke or a hoax, to tease and annoy his associates. He has fair intellect, but lacks application; is very secretive, difficult to detect in his mischief, but not malignant in his disposition. The portrait indicates large Perception, Mirthfulness, and Secretiveness, with fair moral organs.

Such a boy should have the best of instruction and associates to prevent him from becoming dissolute and immoral, for his sense of fun and frolic would be likely to overcome his moral powers and lead him astray.

M. H.

J. B. is a New York rowdy, an inmate of the Penitentiary on Blackwell's Island. From 1839 to the present time he has frequently been committed to prison, for assault and battery, petit larceny, etc., sometimes on three or four indictments. He has an active temperament, is exceedingly impatient, and chafes under confinement, is very quarrelsome, and much given to fighting. The head is high in the region of Self-Esteem and Firmness, indicating great pride, stubbornness, and love of freedom. The moral organs are scantily developed, there being but little brain above

J. B.

Cautiousness and Causality. He was very averse to restraint, and was, doubtless, left to run wild in youth, or was rudely kicked and cuffed at home, and went among low company to seek society. He is shrewd and cunning, remarkably ingenious, but so exceedingly determined that he resists all restraint. Had he been judiciously trained and educated to some vigorous mechanical trade he might have been saved from crime. A large city is a poor place to bring up boys.

S. S. is an Irishman who was formerly a prize-fighter, and was sent to the State Prison for five years for assault and battery, with intent to kill, and since his liberation, some ten years, he has spent most of his time in the city and county prisons of New York. He is a man of great energy of passion and purpose, but they are all of the lowest character, their sole tendency being to prove his superiority as an animal. His head, like that of the tiger, is low and very broad, showing great weakness of the moral and intellectual organs and predominant animal propensity. In him there is nothing refined and elevated, but every thing that is base and brutal.

LAURENCE STERNE.

THE author of "Tristram Shandy," was remarkable for racy wit and humor, and for his capacity to detect and trace out the nice shades of human character, and so develop them in his writings as to make his works universally popular. Whoever has read the sayings and doings of "My Uncle Toby," and sympathized with his overflowing kindness of disposition, will recognize the power of STERNE to paint the human feelings and stir the tender emotions of our nature. He had a clear intellect, very large Language, Mirthfulness (No. 23), Secretiveness, and social organs.

EPHRAIM BYROM.

THIS man has very large Concentrativeness, Firmness, Individuality, and Comparison, and very strong mechanical and mathematical organs. He is a resident of Sag Harbor, L. I., and is distinguished as an inventor and practical mechanic. He invented and made with his own hands a "Universal Planetarium," showing all the planets of the solar system in their regular motions, which was so nicely constructed that it would operate for years in the most perfect manner, by clock-work machinery. It is the most wonderful invention ever developed for exhibiting astronomical revolutions. He is now engaged in constructing church clocks of his own invention, which he warrants to run two years without a variation of two minutes in that time. He is one of the most modest, retiring, and unobtrusive men of our acquaintance.

"I AM firmly convinced of the truth of Phrenology, and of its vast importance, as constituting the only satisfactory and consistent system of mental philosophy which the world has yet seen."—DR. WM. GREGORY, F.R.S.E., President of the Royal Medical Society.

MRS. PHEBE COLEMAN.

THE above likeness shows a great predominance of the mental and motive temperament, with an unusually full development of the brain.

The head is very full in the frontal lobe, broad in the temples, and high on the top, which indicates a strong, original, reasoning mind, ability to plan, and to comprehend first principles; also skill, ingenuity, versatility of talent, imagination, and high moral sentiments.

Mrs. Coleman is from a family distinguished for mathematical, mechanical, and astronomical talent, and she is particularly known as very ingenious, inventive, imitative, and mathematical.

With very limited means for an education, she has mastered several languages and become an adept in the natural sciences.

G. P. is a negro imprisoned in the New York Penitentiary on Blackwell's Island for petit larceny. He is exceedingly deficient in reflection and judgment, but has quick perceptions, very strong passions, and much mental eccentricity. His remarks evince shrewdness of observation, without any capacity to perceive the relation of cause and effect. His conversation abounds in odd sayings, jests, and humorous remarks. The portrait indicates a fullness above the eyes, and large perceptive organs, while the reflective organs in the upper part of the forehead are almost wholly wanting. The crown of the head is high, showing pride, stubbornness, and vanity.

G. P.

"I look upon Phrenology as the guide of philosophy and the handmaid of Christianity. Whoever disseminates true Phrenology is a public benefactor."—HON. HORACE MANN.

FRANCES SARGENT OSGOOD.

Mrs. Osgood, whose maiden name was Locké, was born in Boston, in 1813, and early evinced a talent for general literature, and especially for poetry. She has gained an enviable reputation as a writer, both in Europe and America, and has recorded her name and character on the memory of the world as a woman of true genius. She edited the "Flowers of Poetry and Poetry of Flowers," in 1841, and in 1847 "The Floral Offering." In 1850 she published a complete collection of her poems, in a large octavo volume.

She had a very susceptible and exquisite organization; her brain was of full size. Her over-active brain served to give ethereality to her composition, and to exhaust her vital energies at an early day. Her moral faculties were strong, her sympathies always awake, and she ever aimed to minister to the happiness of others. A pure-minded, unselfish, highly cultivated, yet simple child of nature, was Frances Sargent Osgood. She died in New York, May 12th, 1850.

JENNY LIND.

JENNY LIND has a brain of rather large size, and well proportioned to her vital powers. Her temperaments are well balanced, with a predominance of the vital and mental.

The natural tone of her organization is elevated, but rendered much more so by cultivation.

Her phrenological developments are as follows: Social organs all large, or very large; Approbation very large, which is manifested with the superior rather than the inferior faculties; Firmness large, with very large Benevolence and Veneration; Order, Time, and Tune, and large Constructiveness, Individuality, Eventuality, Comparison, Locality, Form, Size, Calculation, Spirituality, Hope, and full Conscientiousness; Language, Causality, Mirthfulness, Imitation, Ideality, with rather prominent propelling and restraining faculties. Self-Esteem is moderate; Mirthfulness, Ideality, and Imitation appear naturally to be less than full, but have been cultivated, and thus rendered active.

From the above we infer that she is very affectionate, warm-hearted, and a devoted friend; very fond of children; affable, obliging, familiar, anxious to please; yet firm, steady, circumspect, honest, and particularly respectful; mindful of her dependence on a Higher Power; very sympathetic and tender in feeling, taking positive delight in doing good. She has great practical talent, common sense, judgment, precision, order, good general memory, and great powers of criticism, intuition, and ingenuity.

Her extraordinary musical talent is the result of a favorable organization as a whole, both of body and mind, giving sound, strong lungs, and vitality, with mental control over them; an ardent, susceptible mind, fully appreciating all social and moral considerations, joined with an intellect most favorable for correct perceptions, arrangements, and powers of execution, as well as very large Tune and Time. Her whole soul and body enter into the composition to make up the musical talent.

She doubtless has her faults and defects, but by the proper exercise of her prudence and practical judgment she is enabled to keep them from public view.

She differs from other women in the following particulars: she has better discipline of mind, more industry, common sense, moral courage, ambition, and a more proper appreciation of her own abilities; and last, though not least, her very large Veneration gives her a sense of constant dependence on a Higher Power, hence the unlimited praise she receives she regards as due to her Maker rather than herself.

Admitting that she has more than a common musical talent, yet she is a bright example of what industry, application, an energetic, temperate life, and an honest devotion to her calling can accomplish; for few women in her vocation are so sure to fulfill their engagements and so uniformly successful under all circumstances, as JENNY LIND.

LOUISA SHARP.

In the annexed portrait is seen a fine, active temperament of the vital and mental cast, giving sprightliness and clearness of mind, and a decided tendency to mental pursuits. The whole forehead is beautifully shaped, showing all the organs of perception, memory, judgment, and criticism in large and equal development. The temples, too, are particularly expanded in the region of Constructiveness and Ideality, while the tophead, directly above each eye, in the region of Imitation, is very prominently elevated. Such an organization is admirably adapted to general scholarship, to literary and scientific attainments, and especially to mechanical and artistic excellence.

She was an artist of great merit, and decidedly ingenious in executing the mechanical part of her artistic efforts, and perhaps, more than is common to artists, she could by her own efforts realize her ideal, and give body, form, and tangible existence to the creations of her fertile fancy.

The chest seems too small to sustain such a head with so much of a tendency to mental labor.

AGENCIES FOR OUR PERIODICALS.—The PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL, the WATER-CURE JOURNAL, and THE STUDENT, are published monthly at One Dollar a year, in advance.

These publications are universally popular, and have a more extensive circulation than any other scientific periodicals in this or any other country, yet they are susceptible of a tenfold wider circulation. Many young men are now doing a large business obtaining subscribers for them, but there is ample room in the United States for hundreds more. Persons desiring to engage in this business, or in connection with the sale of our books, may send us suitable references, and we will forward a certificate of agency, together with the terms of commission. Please address, post paid, Fowlers and Wells, 131 Nassau Street, New York.

PREDICTIONS FOR THE FUTURE.

Women who stop drinking strong tea and coffee will scold less.

Men who stop drinking spirits and using tobacco will swear less and tell fewer vulgar stories.

The more water is used judiciously, the less medicine will be taken.

The more perfectly we obey the laws of nature the more free shall we be from disease and depravity, and the more disposed to love and obey our Creator.

1862 will be a year of great business prosperity and spiritual advancement. A man's whole time will be required to keep pace with all discoveries, inventions, and astonishing developments that will appear.

In 1862 scales will fall from the eyes of those who are blinded by prejudice and sectarianism, and they will clearly see that the legitimate teachings of Phrenology and Christianity do not clash.

The more Phrenology is understood the better will it be appreciated and valued.

In 1862 many young men will change their entire course of life for the better through the influence of Phrenological advice.

The laws which govern the mind and the body, as taught by Phrenology and Physiology should be, and we trust soon will be, studied in every school in our country. Then will education have a true basis, and the most important of all knowledge be placed within reach of the young.

From this time onward there will be a great improvement in man's social relations—better husbands and wives, and more perfect children.

Woman will be better appreciated, and her true sphere in society, understand her real duty, wear shorter dresses, less padding, thicker shoes, and hang her clothing on her shoulders rather than on her hips, and be contented to let nature pass for what it is worth in its highest degree of cultivation, without so much artificial display.

In 1862 young ladies will tell young men who smoke, chew, drink, and swear, that they want decent, moral husbands or none.

In 1862 young men will tell those young women who wear trails to their dresses, expose their lungs, wear consumption shoes and hose, and pride themselves on their personal attractions, while they are ignorant in all those matters necessary to make good wives, that they cannot afford to throw themselves away and run so great a social risk as to take them for partners.

If you would have good husbands, wives, and children, encourage the good that is developed, and reprove the bad with gentleness.

In 1868-7 there will be very great changes take place in the political and ecclesiastical world. Opinions and faith will vacillate with every new development. After that period religion and politics will pass into other hands, and be better adapted to the wants of the people and the improvements of the race.

ECLIPSES IN THE YEAR 1852.

WOMAN'S DRESS.

THE time has come, the crisis passed, enlightened woman will no longer conform to uncomfortable fashions in dress.

A meeting of respectable ladies was recently held in the city of New York, whereupon it was—

1. Resolved, that woman has a right to decide what kind of dress is most comfortable, convenient, and healthful.

2. Resolved, that we are heartily tired of carrying from three to twenty skirts on our hips, for mere purposes of show or appearances, thus impeding circulation, perverting the order of nature, and destroying health.

3. Resolved, that we experience very great inconvenience, under all circumstances, from wearing long dresses, while no good arises from that fashion.

4. Resolved, that we will not sweep the streets any longer with our dresses, unless paid by the corporation; and under no circumstances will we with the same, mop up the tobacco spittle of those who disregard the happiness and convenience of woman, and would if possible prevent her from rising to her proper level in society.

5. Resolved, that we will no longer wear consumption shoes and stockings, but will wear those that will promote health and add to our comfort.

6. Resolved, that we will not dress to please a false taste and hollow-hearted world; that we will lay aside all unnecessary wadding, padding, and gatherings, and extra clothing, and hang the weight of our dresses on our shoulders, that we may breathe freely, walk easily, protect all parts of the body alike from the weather, and at the same time secure an equal temperature and circulation of the blood.

7. Resolved, that we will use our best endeavors to convince other women of the evils of our present styles of dress, and turn a deaf ear to all devotees of fashion, and scoffing men.

8. Resolved, that the above resolutions be published in all journals and annuals favoring the improvement and elevation of woman.

9. Resolved, that we meet the first Tuesday of every month until our work is accomplished.

10. Resolved, that any woman may become a member of this association who will comply with the above resolutions.

Whereupon the meeting adjourned.

MISS LOVE INDEPENDENCE, Sec.      MRS. MARY PRUDENCE, President.

NOTE.—The above representation is not designed to show the style of dress to be worn, but to represent a healthy, sound constitution, great energy of mind, and a full development of all the functions of the body.

THE most effectual way to gain a correct practical acquaintance with Phrenology is to obtain some good books on the subject, like the "ILLUSTRATED SELF-INSTRUCTOR," containing one hundred engravings, showing the temperaments, comparative Phrenology, and all the organs, large and small, in contrast; also the phrenological bust, on which all the organs are correctly located and labeled, so that a child can learn them in a few days. The PHRENOLOGICAL BUST is highly ornamental, as well as useful, and costs only One Dollar. It may be sent by express.

ONE vice of appetite costs many a poor laboring man more than it would to keep a cow, and while his children cry for bread, he boasts of his freedom. A red nose and a tobacco breath are his ensigns of liberty. "Intemperance" is the title of a book which costs 12½ cents, and "Tobacco" is the title of another at 25 cents, both mailable, which are an excellent "declaration of independence" and "constitution," and should have a "union" with every man's mind in the land. See list of books.

A GOOD MEDICINE CHEST.—A fountain of fun, welling up from an exhaustless reservoir of vital force, health, and harmonious physical action, and finding vent through the organs of Mirthfulness, Language, and Hope, is the very best means of promoting health and happiness in those feebly endowed with these elements. It would be good policy for melancholy and dyspeptic people to get the portrait of some joyous friend painted in warm colors, and place it in a strong light in their rooms, where its cheerful and happy visage may be constantly before them. This would serve to awaken a sympathy in them in harmony with the picture. We know a physician who carries a merry physiognomy into the sick room, and among chronic, nervous, and hypochondriac people, he does a thousand times more to effect cures with his warm, hearty laugh and joyous face, than he does by his medicines. Success to the laughing doctor

OUR PHRENOLOGICAL CABINET, or MUSEUM, containing hundreds of busts of the most distinguished persons that ever lived, embracing most of the prominent men of this and the last century; also notorious pirates, thieves, robbers, and murderers; besides skulls, in great numbers, both human and animal, from all nations and climes, showing every shade of national and personal character, from the days of ancient Egypt to the present time. This Cabinet has been selected with great care and expense, and is open at all times, free to visitors, by whom it is continually thronged. Strangers visiting the city will find this a most interesting and agreeable resort.

WONDERS OF THE AGE.

MECHANICAL invention in our day seems to be revolutionizing every species of industry. The steam engine has been harnessed to all sorts of machinery in all places, and has thoroughly set aside the necessity to go to some lonely mountain-gorge to find water power. Every day these giant laborers are thundering off twenty thousand newspapers an hour, twenty feet under the very streets of this city. Whole blocks of buildings are made into manufactories, from the sub-basement, twenty feet below the surface of the ground, to the sixth story above it, and hundreds of persons furnished with work to attend the presses, book binders, laundries, machine shops, etc., propelled by a single steam engine. It works without fatigue, complaint, or drought, where the wind mill, horse power, or water fall cannot be used. But even this great agent of motive power is threatened to be laid on the shelf of "obsolete ideas," by new developments in the arcana of invention. Professor Page has, within the last year, run an engine and a train of cars from Washington to Baltimore, at the rate of nineteen miles an hour, by the power of an air electro-magnetic engine, and Mr. Tatum, of Baltimore, is experimenting with a similar engine, which is claimed by some of his friends to be far superior in power and cheaper, than that of Professor Page; while Mr. Sawyer, of New York, has invented what he calls a "pressure engine," which is to be propelled by gravitation and centrifugal force. If his claims be correct it will become the only motive agent, as it will run without exhausting power or involving any expense except the wear of the machinery. Some of the best engineers of this city have been obliged to yield to the claims of the inventor for its feasibility and success.

This power is not called by the inventor, or believed to be, a "perpetual motion," because he claims to use the natural laws according to the rules of mathematics, and achieves his results unlike a water wheel pumping its own supply of water. We cannot affirm that this will succeed, yet we confess that we cannot at present detect its fallacy. A few months will tell the story, and if the claims of Mr. Sawyer are well founded, steam, electro-magnetism, water, and horses will at once be dispensed with, as a stationary power, and driven from boats and railroads.

Mr. Paine, who is experimenting to produce burning gas from water, is a bold thinker, and deserves the good wishes of all for his success. Should he triumph over the obstacles in his way, and verify his theory against the predictions of modern chemists, he will illuminate the world, and write his name in a flood of light.

Success to inventors, and to all true reformers in physics or metaphysics. They are the creators of power that makes one man equal to a thousand, and they unbosom light and knowledge which have been slumbering in the hidden archives of nature since time began. The nineteenth century is verily a great age; happy those who can make an enduring mark upon it.

A PHRENOLOGICAL FACT.

A few days since, Mr. Sizer, of our office, for the first time met Mr. Sawyer, the inventor of the "pressure engine," in a printing-office in this city, and was requested by a friend of Mr. Sawyer to make a few remarks on his head. This he did in a single sentence, without knowing his name or business, as follows: "He is very remarkable for invention, originality, and for beating out a new track to create economical means to bless mankind, because his Constructiveness, Causality, Acquisitiveness, Benevolence, Marvelousness, Form, Size, Weight, and Calculation are all very large, while Veneration is too small to trammel him with respect for past achievements, and his Eventuality too weak to perplex his mind with what has been done by others, and he uses only enough of facts to link together his original ideas as we couple a train of cars with single links."

His history as an inventor, and his speculations for several years on his new "pressure engine," show that the above opinion was emphatically correct.

HINTS.

The way to secure a good character is always to do right.

The way to succeed in business is to stick to it.

One way to gain a business is to advertise. To keep it, deal justly.

The way to secure confidence is never to deceive.

The reputation of many men depends on the number of their friends.

The way to be considered great is to make many friends.

Friends can say for us what modesty would keep us from saying.

Love has three degrees and three qualities. What are they?

Man has three naturally marked periods of life, woman has four. What are they?

Young ladies, if you wish husbands make yourselves worthy.

EDUCATION, PROPER AND IMPROPER.

THE most important things for the young to learn, to prepare them for usefulness and happiness, should be first attended to, while opportunity offers, and the mind is plastic and readily receives impressions.

Many parents imagine that if the brain is crammed with book knowledge their children are well educated, while they remain ignorant of nature, and especially of the functions of their minds and bodies, and the laws by which they are governed.

How many persons receive a polished education, in the popular sense, who do not know that they have a stomach, or its location, except when hungry or when they have overtaxed it by excess? They have lungs, but they do not understand the laws of respiration, and are not aware that these delicate organs require pure air, or their health or life must pay the penalty. Many mothers confine their children in close and heated apartments, depriving them of healthy exercise, until they become puny and sickly, and then continue it because they are delicate; and they grow up—if they do not prematurely die in consequence of such bad treatment—to be slaves to all the bodily and nervous ills that flesh is educationally made heir to. Besides this they eat rich and highly seasoned food, drink hot coffee and tea—the sons smoke cigars—the girls lace tight, and wear thin shoes, their arms and necks bare or thinly clad, their hips overloaded with skirts, creating unhealthy heat, and the consequences are short and miserable life, and a puny race of successors.

Let the school-room and the home-circle abound with books and teachers calculated to impart a thorough knowledge of the bodily functions, that they may learn how to preserve their health and secure temporal happiness. Next let them study the laws of mind as developed by Phrenology, that they may teach what are their natural defects and excesses, and how to correct them. Let them learn that they have moral and intellectual elements which should control their selfishness, regulate their ambition, chasten their various feelings of attachment, and be the master of appetite, which too often rules the mind as with a rod of iron.

Mothers, above all things, should be educated themselves to qualify them to properly educate their children, and develop them in all their physical and mental functions.

In this age of progress, when every one is ashamed of ignorance on any subject relating to business, fashion, art and science, how important that the most valuable of all knowledge should be possessed, viz., that which relates to man himself, as developed by the kindred sciences of Phrenology and Physiology. In the list of books found elsewhere in this work, will be found those which to most minds will open a new field of light, wisdom, joy, and hope, and the basis of a new and higher mode of life and happiness.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN, and his relation to the NATURAL LAWS; By GEORGE COMBE, abridged for the use of schools, has recently been published, and is one of the very best books that can be found for children. Hitherto the rising generations have grown up without any correct knowledge of the natural laws which govern their life and health, and influence their happiness. This work should be in every school and family in the land. The original, of which this is an abridgment, has been regarded by those best qualified to judge, to be the most clear and profound elucidation of the laws of our being, in any language. More than three hundred thousand copies of it have already been sold, and it has been translated into nearly every language of Europe. It is an imperishable monument to the moral purity and intellectual power of its author. It may be ordered from FOWLERS AND WELLS, 181 Nassau Street, New York; price, single copy, 25 cents, or six copies for One Dollar.

EVERY young man who starts in life should aim to start right—one wrong move may block his game for life. He should understand himself as he is, and learn just what business he is best fitted for, before he launches out on the great sea of his career, and dashes on the rocks of disappointment. Phrenology will give him this knowledge, and if he does not understand it himself, let him consult those who do, and let his library contain several of the best practical works on Phrenology.

TO YOUNG MEN who wish to enlarge their knowledge of men and things by traveling, and yet cannot afford the cost without some business to defray the expenses—to students in colleges, desirous of spending their vacations in such a manner as to tone and invigorate their over-taxed constitutions—to those who by confinement in bad air and sedentary occupations have impaired their health and wish to regain it—to all such, we can offer inducements that will enable them to carry out their desires, not only without cost to themselves, but in a pleasant and profitable business.

Many young men are selling our publications and realizing handsome incomes, while at the same time they benefit mankind by scattering valuable truth, enlarge their own experience, and see the world. For an advance of a small sum, say $25, we will supply a stock of our popular works (see list of books), at such a liberal discount from the retail prices, as will enable any enterprising young man to make good wages, and besides, we will warrant those who thus engage against the possibility of loss.

Those wishing further information, will be furnished with our circular, which gives a full explanation. Please address, post paid, Fowlers and Wells, 181 Nassau Street, New York.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.—To know ourselves is a matter of the first importance, and there is no means of obtaining such knowledge so well as by the aid of PHRENOLOGY, which forms the leading features of the Journal. PHYSIOLOGY and HOME EDUCATION will make it invaluable as a guide to mothers in the training of children. YOUNG MEN, anxious to pursue a virtuous and successful course, will find this Journal a friend and foster-father. MAGNETISM and PSYCHOLOGY, with their interesting phenomena, will be fully set forth. The NATURAL SCIENCES, Art, Literature, Mechanism, Agriculture, and General Intelligence, have each a special department in the present volume. The Mechanic, the Farmer, the Professional man, the Student, the Teacher, and the Mother, will find each number of the Journal an instructive and valuable companion.

Terms in advance: Single copy, one year, $1 00; five copies, $4 00; ten copies, $7 00; twenty copies, $10 00. Please address all letters, post paid, to FOWLERS AND WELLS, No. 131 Nassau Street, New York.

PROSPERITY OF PHRENOLOGY.

SINCE the appearance of the PHRENOLOGICAL ALMANAC for 1851, the science has made many noble conquests, and is still going onward from strength to strength, and winning its way to the confidence and love of mankind, as no other system of mental philosophy has ever before done.

To those who are acquainted with its merits, and its tendency to bless the race, in all departments of life, this is not at all surprising. Our position enables us to note the changes of public sentiment in its favor.

When we look back fifteen or twenty years, to the time when all the books and phrenological apparatus in this great country could have been carried in a one-horse cart, and contrast it with the present, we are indeed amazed.

That our friends abroad may also know the giant strides which Phrenology is making, we give a few facts for their consideration.

To meet the demand of the reading public, we have doubled the size of the JOURNAL, and our present circulation is equivalent to 55,000 copies in the old form.

Our book business is increasing in a similar ratio, and cannot fall short of 60,000,000 pages per annum, including the Journals. Just to think of such a mountain of scientific reading matter going forth in a single year! and yet we occasionally hear of some old conservative Rip Van Winkle, awaking to the subject enough to ask, "Is not Phrenology nearly run out?" Run out, forsooth, it is "running out," to and fro through the earth, conquering error, and teaching man the laws of his nature and the means of happiness, like a mighty flood of light.

If its effulgence shall serve to blind the eyes of old-fashioned owl-

To those who are acquainted with its merits, and its tendency to bless the race, in all departments of life, this is not at all surprising. Our position enables us to note the changes of public sentiment in its favor.

When we look back fifteen or twenty years, to the time when all the books and phrenological apparatus in this great country could have been carried in a one-horse cart, and contrast it with the present, we are indeed amazed.

That our friends abroad may also know the giant strides which Phrenology is making, we give a few facts for their consideration.

To meet the demand of the reading public, we have doubled the size of the JOURNAL, and our present circulation is equivalent to 55,000 copies in the old form.

Our book business is increasing in a similar ratio, and cannot fall short of 60,000,000 pages per annum, including the Journals. Just to think of such a mountain of scientific reading matter going forth in a single year! and yet we occasionally hear of some old conservative Rip Van Winkle, awaking to the subject enough to ask, "Is not Phrenology nearly run out?" Run out, forsooth, it is "running out," to and fro through the earth, conquering error, and teaching man the laws of his nature and the means of happiness, like a mighty flood of light.

If its effulgence shall serve to blind the eyes of old-fashioned owl-like bigotry, and disturb its ancient gravity by new and reformatory ideas, the fault is not in the blazing luminary, but in the ill-adjusted optics, which are adapted rather to twilight than to the mid-day glories of the nineteenth century.

Lectures on Phrenology were never in greater demand or better attended, even on its first introduction as a science, when it was invested with novelty, and the public mind lashed into a fever of curiosity. Now, a long course, with crowded houses and stated hearers, can be sustained in any part of our vast country. Where there is the most of education, reflection, and intelligence, does the science uniformly prosper most—if we except a class who became settled in their opinions, and arrived at the sage conclusion that they stood on the summit of knowledge before the science was promulgated in America.

Our office business in New York, and wherever we lecture, is steadily increasing. Persons consult us relative to the choice of proper pursuits in life, partnerships, marriages, training children, self-cultivation, and on all the great aims of life, and thousands date their first correct ideas of life and its objects, at the time they consulted Phrenology as applied to their own case.

Another instrumentality for promoting this man-reforming science is "THE AMERICAN PHRENOLOGICAL SOCIETY," which gave its regular annual course of lectures in Clinton Hall, New York, in the winter of 1851. The course consisted of eight lectures, given in the following order: on "PRACTICAL PHRENOLOGY," by NELSON SIZER; "A SCIENTIFIC MEASURE OF HONESTY IN COMMERCIAL TRANSACTIONS," by STEPHEN P. ANDREWS; on "THE ANIMAL MAN," by BAYARD TAYLOR; on "SELF-CULTURE," by HON. HORACE GREELEY; on "THE CULTIVATION OF THE VOICE," by DR. E. P. BANNING; on "THE IDEAL AND THE ACTUAL," by REV. E. H. CHAPIN; "A POEM ON PROGRESS," by REV. JOHN PIERPONT; "PHRENOLOGY AT HOME," by NELSON SIZER. This course of lectures was eminently successful, as evinced in the importance and reformatory spirit of these subjects, and the substantial intelligence of the large audiences in regular attendance.

HYDROPATHY is in admirable harmony with our phrenological enterprise, for it contains the laws of bodily regimen and health, to promote which we publish the "WATER-CURE JOURNAL." This we have also doubled in size, and its circulation is now equal to 45,000 copies in the old form. "THE STUDENT AND MONTHLY SCHOOL READER," devoted to the physical, moral, and intellectual improvement of the young, is rapidly gaining public favor, and running up a large subscription list.

These are our agencies for spreading truth, and we rejoice to announce to the friends of human improvement everywhere, that the work "goes bravely on." To our friends we owe much for their valuable aid in promoting these reforms; but to the truth itself we attribute mainly what of triumph has attended its progress.

PROPERTY.

THE WATER-CURE JOURNAL is published monthly, illustrated with engravings, containing the Elements, Anatomy, and Physiology of the Human Body, with full instructions for treatment. It is especially a JOURNAL OF HEALTH, adapted to all classes, and is designed to be a complete FAMILY GUIDE, in all cases and in all diseases.

HYPOCRATY will be fully explained, and so explained that all may apply it in various diseases, even those not curable by any other means. There is no system so simple, harmless, and universally applicable as the Water-Cure.

Reasons in all our modes of life will be pointed out, and made so plain that "the deaf mute may read." We adhere fully that man may prolong his life much beyond the number of years usually attained. We propose to show how.

THE WATER-CURE JOURNAL

THE PHILOSOPHY OF HEALTH

Will be fully discussed, including Food, Drinks, Clothing, Air, and Exercise, showing their effects on both body and mind.

"THE WATER-CURE JOURNAL" is bold, earnest, and unbiassed—written with the soul and energy that nothing but sincere conviction can inspire. The facts which it brings forward in overwhelming abundance are sufficient to startle the Medical Profession out of the deepest slumber.—New York Tribune.

Please address all letters, post-paid, to FOWLERS AND WELLS, No. 131 Nassau Street, New York.

THIS JOURNAL

Will be published on the first of each month, containing the best matter with reference to the application of this system to Life, Health, and Happiness, adapted to all classes, on the following

TO TAKE IN HEALTH.—

Without health, even life is insupportable, and it can only be gained. To preserve health, no other mode of living can compare with this system. It will be a part of our duty to teach the world how to preserve health, as well as cure disease.

WATER-CURE AT HOME.

Particular directions will be given for the treatment of ordinary cases at Home, which will enable all, who may have occasion, to apply it, without the aid of a Physician.

TO WORKING AND MORTALITY.—

It is universally conceded that the Water-Cure is not equaled by any other mode of treatment in those peculiar conditions common only to women. This Journal will contain such advice and instruction as may be considered most important in all these peculiar cases.

PROSPECTUS.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL

Is published at the first of each month. Devoted to SCIENCE, LITERATURE, and GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

PHRENOLOGY

Forms a leading feature, which will be amply illustrated with portraits, and applied to all the common interests of the Human Race.

PHYSIOLOGY

The Laws of Life and Health will be defined, illustrated, and made interesting to all; our motto being, "A sound mind in a healthy body."

HOME EDUCATION

Will occupy much attention, and be just the kind of knowledge that the mother requires, as a guide in the discharge of her important duties.

YOUNG MEN

Will find the Journal a friend, to encourage them in virtue, shield them from vice, and to prepare them for success in life.
